*The Poetry Collection, University Archives, and Rare Books will begin a significant renovation project this summer that will most likely prevent access to the majority of our collections and also cause us to close to the public for a period of time. Tentatively, this work should not begin before May 1, and should not continue past August 30. During this time access to collections and our ability to answer reference questions may be impeded. Please contact individual departments before planning your visit and know that reference responses may be delayed or unavailable during the renovation.
